Best Commercial Bloom – "Kanaka Girl" grown by Reasoners Nursery of Bradenton.

Other Tri-Color winners were:

Amateur Double – "General Williams" grown by Dot Marks of St. Petersburg.
Collector Double – "Golden Pete" grown by Mr. . . Frank Miller of Largo
Commercial Double – "Andersons Double Yellow Red" grown by Reasoners Nursery of Bradenton.
Double Seedling – grown by Carver & Roxy's Nursery of Mt. Dora.
Single Seedling – grown by Trail Nursery of Ft. Myers.
Best Miniature – "Collerii" by Reasoners Nursery.

The Sweepstakes went to Dot Marks and Basil L. Yettaw tied for the Amateur section. Both are members of the Sunset Chapter. John Ottley won in the

(Next page)

TRAIL NURSERY

At our new location

Pine Ridge and Kelly Road
MO 3-7480 Ft. Myers, Fla.

WYNN DOXSEE EUNICE TAFT

See us for your Hibiscus needs

Many Varieties – both old and new collectors class and Carver & Roxy's Nursery won in the commercial class. Mr. Ottley is from Anna Maria and Carver & Roxy's Nursery is located in Mt. Dora.

OPEN SUNDAYS VISITORS WELCOME

The second show of the season was staged by the Putnam County Chapter in Crescent City. There were nine amateur exhibitors and we failed to record the number of gold seal bloom.

Sweepstake honors went to Carver & Roxy's Nursery in the commercial section, – "Tex" L'Argent in the collectors section, and B. F. Taylor in the Amateur section. Mr. L'Argent and Mr. Taylor both reside in Crescent City.

The Best Commercial Bloom was won by Monroe's Hibiscus Nursery of Eagle Lake with a new seedling to be named "Ross Gast". The Best Collector Bloom was "Golden Belle" grown by J. R. Wallace of Ormond Beach. The Best Amateur Bloom was "Temptation" grown by B. F. Taylor.

Other Tri-Color bloom were:

Commercial Single – "Golden Belle" by Carver & Roxy's Nursery
Commercial Double – "Doris Ellen" by Carver & Roxy's Nursery
Commercial Miniature – "El Capitolio" by Monroe's Hibiscus Nursery.
Collector Double – "Con-Fu-Tse" by Ed Wissner of Daytona Beach
Collector Seedling – grown by Theo Rittenmar of Sanford.
Collector Miniature – a seedling grown by Walker Lyon of St. Petersburg
Amateur Single – "Ching Lee II" by Louise Johnson of Ormond Beach
Amateur Seedling – grown by Edna Wells of Palatka.

(Next page)

Before judging a man by his associates, we might bear in mind that Judas Iscariot travelled in pretty good company.